SMALLPOX IN THE COUNTY, - Sinia Johnsio, cologed, arrived in Arlington District. Alexandria county, from Washing on y ster-day, with a sick biby in her arms. The sppearance of this waman, coming as she did from Washington with a sick baby, expited the county people, and no investigating committee, consisting of two persons who had suffered from the plague, was appointed. The committee proceeded to the house where the woman and the baby were dou.idled, and an examination revealed that the infant was marked with small pox, the discuss being already at an advanced stage. The committee reported the result of their examination, and the woman and baby were ordered back to Draper's Alley, Washington, from whence it was secretained she came. This is the only case of smallpox that has made its appearance in the
